

Two named to Coachella Valley Economic Partnership board

Debra Gruszecki • The Desert Sun • November 8, 2010

The Coachella Valley Economic Partnership has appointed Kathi Jacobs and David Peat – to its 33-member board of directors.

“Having Kathi and David on CVEP’s Board of Directors guarantees that the organization will continue to benefit from diverse opinions and backgrounds,” Clifford Daniels, CVEP board chair, said in a statement. “Based on their wide range of executive experience as well as their focus on the community through their respective companies, they are the best candidates for these positions.”

Jacobs, director of public affairs for Time Warner Cable, has served on the advanced technologies industry council for CVEP’s Career Pathways initiative.

Peat, vice president and regional manager of the desert region for Pacific Western Bank, serves as treasurer of the board of directors and trustees for the Boys & Girls Club of the Coachella Valley.
