CVEP RENEWABLE ENERGY ROUNDTABLE ANNOUNCES ANNUAL SPONSORSHIP FROM NOBLE RENEWABLES, LLC

Sponsorship Furthers Commitment to Renewable Energy By Noble & Company, LLC and Wintec Energy, Ltd.

Palm Desert, California (September 23, 2010) - The Coachella Valley Economic Partnership (CVEP) is pleased to announce Noble Renewables, LLC, has signed on as a sponsor for CVEP's monthly Renewable Energy Roundtable forums for the coming year.

"We see great promise in the CVEP led effort to bring together industry, government, and stakeholders, in partnership to accelerate the development of renewable energy projects in the Coachella Valley. Our goal is to bring much needed jobs and income to the region," said Fred Bell, Chief Operating Officer of Noble & Company, LLC, a partner in the Noble Renewables, LLC venture.

Noble Renewables, LLC is a renewable energy company with offices in Palm Springs and Palm Desert. The venture is at the forefront of the wind and solar power generation industries and is actively pursuing new projects that are designed to utilize the tremendous incentives for renewable developments that are provided by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

"Having Noble Renewables on board as a year-long sponsor is a strong compliment to our efforts and we're grateful for their support," said Wesley Ahlgren, Chief Operating Officer of CVEP. "Dedicated sponsorship allows us to deliver to our stakeholders the valuable information they seek in order to expand their efforts and create new employment opportunities."

The next Renewable Energy Roundtable forum will take place Thursday, October 21, from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., at UCR Palm Desert. The Roundtable is coordinated by CVEP, hosted by UCR Palm Desert, and now sponsored by Noble Renewables, LLC.
